The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio:

Gentlemen -- "I cannot speak too highly of the value of Perunc. I believe that I owe myltje to its wonderful merits. I suffered with catarrh of the head and lungs in its worst form, until the doctors jairly gave me up, and I despaired of ever getting well again.

"I noticed your advertisement and the splendid testimonials given by the people who had been cured by Peruna, and determined to try a bottle. I felt but little better, but used a second and third bottle and kept on improving slowly.

"It took six bottles to cure me, but they were worth a King's ransom to me. I talk Peruna to all my friends and am a true believer in its worth. "--- Mrs. Col. E. J. Gresham.

I. Jesus preaching in Nazareth (vs. 16-21). 16. "Came to Nazareth." This was a trying visit. His own people were in no mood to receive Him, but Jesus very properly opens Has public work in Galilee at His own home. "His custom was." This is a good example for us. There are many evidences that Jesus had fixed religious habits. "Synagogue." The synagogues were not in use until after the Babylouish captivity. They could only be erected were not in use until after the Babylouish captivity. They could only be erected where ten men in easy circumstances (called "men of case") could be found to attend them. The people sat with their faces toward the temple; there were "chief seats" for the elders, and the women sat by themselves. "Sabbath day," We should, on the Sabbath day, always avoid work, conversation and reading unfit for the Lord's day, and give ourselves to spiritual exercises. This was His custom. If He needed the means of grace surely we do. "Stood up." They stood up to read the Scriptures, but sat down to teach. The whole congregation stood during the reading.

17. "Esaias." Greek form of Isaiah. "Opened the book." The roll. The Scriptures were written on parchment, with two rollers, so that as they were read one was rolled on and the other rolled off. The portion selected was Isaiah 61: 1, 2.

18. "Spirit—is upon Me." This was given Him as His baptism. "Hath anointed Me." I have been set apart for this very purpose. This is the first great qualification of a true preacher. "The Gospel." Good news concerning Himself, His mission and the deliverance He brings. "The broken hearted." Those overwhelmed with sorrow for their sins or sufferings. "The captives." The gospel comes as a great moral emancipation proclamation to those in bondage to sin, evil habits or the devil. "The blind." The spiritually blind. The light of the world has appeared—one who is able to unseal blind minds as we'l as blind eves. "Bruised." As the gast physician He comes to heal those who are broken and crushed because of sins committed. The "wounds, and bruises, and putrefying sores" may now be "closed" and "brownd un" and healed. Note the putrefying sores" may now be "closed" and "bound up" and healed. Note the difference between the prophets and Christ: They proclaimed liberty, He seis at lib-

19. "Acceptable year of the Lord." 19. "Acceptable year of the Lord." A reference to the year of jubilec. Lev. 25: 8-17. This was the year when, 1. Debts and obligations were released. 2. All Hebrew servants were set free. 3. Each resumed possession of his inheritance. This was a type of gospel times. The genuine jubilec year goes beyond the gospel picture. The liberty proclaimed is soul liberty.

20. "Closed the book." Rolled up the roll. "To the minister." The ruler of the synagogue or his servant. "Sat down." See on verse 16. This indicated that He See on verse 16. This indicated that He was through reading and was now about to teach. "Eyes—fastened on Him." Many things contributed to arrest their attention: 1. The report of His teachings and mighty works which had preceded Him. 2. The remarkable character of the words He had read. 3. His manner and bearing, 4. The fact that they knew Him so well. 5. The unction of the Holy Spirit upon Him.

so well. 5. The unction of the Holy Spirit upon Him.

21. "Fulfilled in your ears." He saw their condition and He knew that He could save them. He is prophet, physician. Redeemer, deliverer. They are poor captives, blind and bruised. He stands before them with the calm consciousness of power "to grapple with and overcome all their miseries." heir miseries their miseries."

II. The discussion (vs. 22-27). 22.
"Bare Him witness." "Gave signs of approbation." "Gracious words." This passage and John 7: 46, give us some idea of the majesty and sweetness which characterized our Lord's utterances. "Joseph's the majesty and sweetness which characterized our Lord's utterances. "Joseph's Son." How can it be possible that the son of this obscure family—a carpenter who has made furniture for our houses a mau without education, without rank or office—that He should be the Messiah, the King of the Jews?

23. "Ye—say." Jesus shows that He knows their thoughts. "Proverb." Or parable: denoting any kind of figurative knows their thoughts. "Proverb." Or parable; denoting any kind of figurative discourse. "Physician, heal Thyself." That is, they would ask why He did not perform miracles in Nazareth—at home, instead of at Capernaum. Jesus had, only a few months before, healed a nobleman's son at Capernaum (John 4: 48-54), and this was probably only one example of many. "Do also here." Let us see Your power. The best modern equivalent is, "Charity begins at home;" do something here. Work a miracle and prove to us that You are the Messiah. 24. "In His own country." No prophet is received in his own country as he is elsewhere. It is very difficult for any people to believe in the greatness or power of one who has grown up among them. This is the reason He gives for declining to work miracles in Nazareth. Their unbelief hindered Him. He would not display His power merely to reth. Their unbelief hindered Him. would not display His power merely to reth. Their unbelief hindered Him. He would not display His power merely to gratify curiosity.

25. "I tell you." He now proceeds to show how Elijah and Elisha, two of their greatest prophets, had gone to the Gentiles with their blessings, and that by divine direction, while many in Israel were suffering unnoticed. "In the days of Elias." See I Kings 17: 1-9. "The heaven was shut up." There were two rainy seasons, called the early and latter rains. "The first fell in October, the latter in April. The first prepared the ground for the seed, the latter, ripened the harvest. As both of these were withheld, consequently there was a great famine." 26. "Save unto Sarepta." Greek form of Zarephath. Elijah was not sent to the widows of Israel, but to a widow of Zarephath—a village on the Mediterranean coast.

27. "Eliseus." Greek form for Elisha. The meaning of these two verses is, God dispenses His benefits when. where and to whom He pleases. No person can complain, because no person deserves any good from His hand: Jesus might justly do the same in the displays of His grace. Thus He showed that His blessings were intended for Gentiles as well as Jews. "Naaman." See 2 Kings 5: 1-14.

III. The rejection (vs. 28-30). 28. When their race prejudices were struck they at once "were filled with wrath." rejudice is stronger than reason. They could not give countenance to a preacher who even inferred that the Gentiles whom they hated so bitterly, could be biessed. 29. "Brow of the hill." Nazareth spreads itself out upon the castern face of a mountain, where there is a perpendicular wall of roek from forty to fifty feet high. 30. "Passing through." His escape from them was no doubt miraculous. They desired to see a miracle and here they had one.

COMMERCIAL REVIEW

General Trade Conditions

R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: Retail trade has been somewhat slow to recover from holiday duliness, partly because of the bad weather, which also retarded co'lections to some extent. Traffic was impeded and shipments of merchandise delayed. On the other hand, low temperature stimulated the demand for easonable goods, and burdensome tocks in the hands of dealers were reluced. Jubbers and manufacturers in hose lines received supplementary orers, and the wool market became irmer in tone, although actual sales lid not increase materially. Mills and actories report irregular conditions some industries opening the new year under very favorable auspices, while ther branches are extremely quiet latest returns of railway earnings for December are 5.4 per cent, above the previous year.

Failures this week in the United States are 400, against 232 last week 284 the preceding week and 350 the cor-

"A man living near Fort Smith died. This man was comfortably well off in worldly possessions, but he had been neglectful of his spiritual welfare. He had never joined any church and had little to do with religious advisers. The time for his funeral arrived, and although a preacher had agreed to be on hand, an unavoidable accident had delayed him. The house was out of town, and as the friends of the departed brother were all assembled, Judge Read was asked to make a few remarks over the body of his friend, who also had once lived in Kentucky. The judge consented.

"My friends," he said, "we are gathered here to-day to pay a final tribute to our friend who has already solved the mysteries of the great hereafter He did not have the reputation of a religious man, and yet he lived the life of a noble Kentucky gentleman He had good hosses and he ran 'em He had good whisky and he drank it He had good game cocks and he fit 'em, for such is the kingdom of heav en."-Arkansas Gagette
